

Workshop on

SUPPORTING RICE FARMERS IN ODISHA TO ADAPT TO CLIMATE CHANGE:
Alternative STI Pathways and their Alignment to SDGs

5 October 2021, Kalinga 1, Fortune Park Sishmo, Bhubaneswar, Odisha, India

Programme Schedule

| Time | Session | Facilitator |
|--------------------------------|---|--|
| 1030-1100 | Registration and Tea | |
| Session 1 1100-1125 | Introductory Session | |
| 1100-1105 | Welcome | Nimisha Mittal, CRISP |
| 1105-1125 | Self-Introduction by the participants | |
| Session 2 1125-1210 | Setting the Scene | |
| 1125-1135 | Background: Objectives of STRINGS and rationale for the case study A brief presentation on the Objectives of the STRINGS Project and rationale for the Case Study | Saurabh Arora, University of Sussex |
| 1135-1205 | Findings from the India Case Study | Rasheed Sulaiman V, CRISP |
| 1205-1210 | Q&A | |
| Session 3 1210-1300 | Panel Discussion | |
| | Improving alignment between STIs and SDGs: Select discussants representing Research (Global/National), Extension (DAFE/NGOs), and Farmers share their Sectoral/ Thematic Perspectives | Ranjitha Puskur, IRRI |
| Session 4 1300-1400 | Open Discussion | |
| | Where do we go from here? Recognising Pluralistic Perspectives and Supporting Diverse Pathways to Steer STIs to SDGs | Rasheed Sulaiman V, CRISP |
| Session 5 1400-1410 | Concluding Session | |
| | Next Steps and Vote of Thanks | Nimisha Mittal, CRISP |
| 1410-1500 | Lunch | |